Patient gowns

Patient gowns are made of cotton textile which has special finishing due to which it do not change the shape, or lose the colour even when washed at high temperatures.
They have certificates of conformity with standards for textiles in the healthcare system and gained the certification for trustworthy textiles.
The gowns are straight, loose, and have short sleeves. The ties can be placed at the front or at the back.
Application:

- as clothing for the patient during the performance of various types of diagnostic tests

Types:

- non sterile
- white, blue, green – for gowns tied at the back or front
- white with overprint – for shirts tied on the side

Size and packing:

- M, L, XL, XXL – depending on the model
- packed by 1 pc
- dimensions of the final product

>>

©Copyright 2026 en.matopat-global.com | Last updated: 04.11.2026