

Safety and comfort for minor medical procedures.

- composition of materials of gauze, nonwoven, plastic and other items used to the perform a given medical procedure
- the set allows to develop a standard proceeding, and thus minimise the risk of error
- set adjusted to individual customer needs
- components targeted at the given procedure reduce the number of unused sterile material
- using one complete set reduces the time to prepare for the surgery and facilitates the performance of surgical procedures
- one package eliminates the cost of the packaging of individual components
- one package eliminates the need to open multiple single in-between packaging, and thus does not increases the risk of infecting a sterile product
- they can be packed in a paper-film pouch, a soft blister or rigid blister packaging
- on the packaging there is a TAG label (except for soft blister packs)

Application:

- for use during outpatient and surgical procedures

Types (few examples):

- dressing set
- dressing change set (1, 2)
- OP-field disinfection set
- suture removal set (1, 2)
- suture application set
- catheter set (1, 2, 3, 4 - with various sizes of catheters)
- lumbar puncture set
- central line insertion set (1, 2)
- drip infusion set
- dialysis set (1, 2, 3)
 - application instructions: start + end
- skin staple removal set
- IV cannula set
- umbilical cord clamp removal set

MD

Sterile devices are certified by the Notified Body TÜV Nord Polska Sp. z o.o. and bear the CE mark with number 2274

>>